Stock Exchange Study Opened

NYSE Specialists Get Questionnaires

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has opened a broad study of the New York Stock Exchange with a 16-page questionnaire for the exchange's 350 stock specialists.

In the inquiry forms, distributed Friday, the Securities and Exchange Commission is seeking answers to three broad questions:

—How do specialists handle trading in more than 100 selected stocks that represent a cross section of Big Board securities?

—Do some specialists have conflicts of interest that might compromise their position as servants of the investing public?

—Are certain large investors, such as the mutual funds, given favored treatment when they buy and sell on the Big Board?

SEC officials said they had no preconceived ideas regarding any of the matters dealt with in the questionnaire. They said they were simply trying to find out how the specialists, the market technicians who conduct the daily stock options, actually operate.

In New York, Keith Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange, commented, "The exchange's members and member organizations will naturally cooperate to the fullest extent in this and all other phases of the Securities and Exchange Commission's study."

The SEC recently completed an investigation of the American Stock Exchange. The agency issued a public report last month that was particularly critical of American Exchange specialists.

At the direction of Congress, the SEC is conducting a year-long study of all phases of the securities industry, including the operations of the 14 registered stock exchanges.

Big Board specialists were instructed to report in detail on many of their activities since

Officer's Age Puzzles School Patrol Boy

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A group of 40 school patrol boys toured Dayton's safety building and stopped in to hear a few words from Police Chief Paul Price.

Price, who has served with the police division more than 25 years, told the boys how they could become policemen.

"You have to be 21 years old to join the force, but can't be over 31," he said.

One puzzled grade schooler raised his hand and asked:

"You look like you're older than 31—how come you're still here?"

Doubts He'll Go to Geneva

U.S. Awaits Nikita Answer on Confab

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials are awaiting with intense interest Soviet Premier Khrushchev's next move on preparations for the forthcoming 18-nation disarmament conference at Geneva.

A new message from Moscow to the Western powers is expected within a few days.

There is growing doubt in some well-informed quarters here that Khrushchev, having been rebuffed on his call for opening the conference on the summit level, will decide to go to Geneva anyway.

Two reasons are advanced for this doubt.

In the first place the five Western Allies who will participate are unanimously opposed to Khrushchev's proposal. Even more importantly, it has failed to evoke enthusiasm among the neutral nations who would be involved.

In the second place a decision by Khrushchev to go to Geneva with support only from chiefs of Soviet satellite countries would be interpreted as simply a propaganda maneuver and thus damaging to the prospects for progress in the disarmament talks.

In diplomatic discussions with nations outside the Soviet bloc, the United States and Britain have contended that the participating countries should get the negotiations off to a serious start. President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk are known to favor an absolute minimum of speech-making at the outset.

A new message from Khrushchev is expected because he has not yet replied to messages from Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan turning down his summit proposal.

The exchanges began 10 days ago with a proposal by Kennedy and Macmillan that foreign ministers open the Geneva negotiations. Khrushchev replied that he thought the heads of government themselves should open the conference. On Wednesday Kennedy and Macmillan objected to that procedure.

So far as is known here, aside from leaders in the Eastern European countries, only United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser has shown an interest in attending the conference. Nasser indicated he would go to Geneva if a majority of the leaders of the 18 nations agreed to do so. Probably the most serious blow to Khrushchev's hopes came in Indian Defense Minister Khrishna Menon's statement that Prime Minister Nehru would not attend and that a summit conference on disarmament at the start of negotiations would amount to a circus.

Robert Says U.S. Neutral On N. Guinea

BANDUNG, Indonesia (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy bluntly told Indonesians today they would be crazy to think the United States would toss aside its neutral attitude and oppose the Dutch in Indonesia's claim to West New Guinea.

"If you don't like our attitude there is no point in your getting upset or angry about it," he told Bandung University students on a delayed visit to this West Java capital.

The U.S. attorney general made his remarks in reply to repeated questions from the students on why the United States would not support the Indonesian claim to the territory.

The United States, he said, is friendly to both Indonesia and the Dutch. Asking the students to take a mature approach, Kennedy declared, "If you upset us we are not going to tell our people to get out of Indonesia. We will not say to hell with you. And do not say it to us."

The students reacted to Kennedy's remarks with surprising calm, and later good-humoredly surrounded him as he walked to his car.

But in the Communist stronghold of Surabaya, capital of East Java,

Barmaid Shot During Holdup Is Critical

CLEVELAND (AP) — A barmaid who was shot twice, evidently during a holdup, remained in critical condition today in St. Vincent Charity Hospital.

Police said they were looking for two men seen in the area shortly before Mrs. Alexander Kulas, 35, of Cleveland was shot in the chest and abdomen.

About $1,000 was reported missing from the cash register following the shooting Friday night in Lauslin's Cafe.

A woman's cries for help, punctuated by three shots, were heard by customers in a confectionery next to the tavern. They ran into the bar and found Mrs. Kulas on the floor.

Six Persons Dead; Buildings Set on Fire

Strike Protesting Austerity Program Erupts Into Violence

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—A state of emergency was proclaimed in British Guiana today after a bloody day of riots and looting in which at least six persons were killed and an estimated 20 million West Indian dollars in goods and property destroyed.

Fires are still smoldering in many parts of the city and the situation's tense but quiet.

British troops converged on the blazing capital by truck, frigate and plane to man power stations and other key installations as well as to guard the homes of leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan and his ministers, who striking city workers are demanding should resign.

The strike, which began five days ago to protest Jagan's austerity budget proposals and his leftist actions, is continuing but the Trades Union Council has scheduled an emergency meeting to consider a plan to end it.

In a wave of arson and looting Friday night, hundreds roamed the street in a staggering orgy of plunder. At least three persons were shot dead by troops who had orders to shoot on sight.

At least 30 persons have been arrested.

Rioting began early Friday afternoon after local riot squads used tear gas on a mob besieging the power station.

By midnight 24 buildings were ablaze, with fire fighters waging a losing battle since the strike had curtailed the city's water supply.

Troops, assisted by seamen from the British frigates Troubridge and Wizard, joined the battle, and by dawn had the situation in hand.

Buildings Hit By Fire Among buildings hit by fire were the head office of Bookers United Kingdom Co., with many stores and sugar estates, and stores owned by D. A. Thani and Kirpalani, merchants from India.

Gov. Sir Ralph Grey and Jagan appealed to citizens to keep off the streets and stay in their homes. But thousands fled the city all night to seek the safety of suburban areas, away from the battle zone.

The bloodshed seemed certain to set back Jagan's drive for quick independence for British Guiana, Britain's only South American colony, and his hopes for U.S. Alliance for Progress funds.

Pope Names 10 New Cardinals

No N. Americans Among Prelates

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII named 10 new cardinals today raising the College of Cardinals to 87—the highest in Roman Catholic Church history. There were no North Americans among the new princes of the church.

The Pope called a Consistory for March 19 to present the new cardinals their red hats.

The new cardinals included three Italians, two South Americans, one Irishman, one Spaniard, one Portuguese, one Belgian and one Syrian.

The new cardinals are: Juan Landazuri Ricketts, archbishop of Lima, Peru; Raul Silva Henriquez, archbishop of Santiago, Chile; Leo Jozef Suensens, archbishop of Malines-Brussels; Father Michael Browne, Irish, superior of the Dominican Order; Msgr. Jose da Costa Nunes, Portuguese, vice chamberlain of the Roman Catholic Church.

Msgr. Giovanni Panico, Italian, archbishop of Palermo; Msgr. Ildebrando Antonietti, Italian, Vatican nuncio to Spain; Msgr. Efreim Forni, Italian, Vatican nuncio to Belgium; Msgr. Gabriele Acacio Coussa, pro secretary of the Vatican Oriental congregation; Abbot Anselmo Albareda, Spaniard, prefect of the Vatican library and a member of the Benedictine Order.

The Consistory will be the fifth that Pope John has held for creation of cardinals since he became pontiff on Oct. 28, 1958.

He named his first cardinals only a few days after his elec-

Few GI Casualties In Viet Nam Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials say the guerrilla war in South Viet Nam will be won with a minimum amount of combat and loss of life by Americans.

As this official optimism was being expressed here, there was a report in Saigon the United States is going to triple the length of service of some of its Army men in Viet Nam.

About three-fourths of the estimated 4,000 U. S. servicemen there are assigned to a temporary six-months tour of duty, but an informant said this was being extended to a permanent 18-month tour for some key personnel, such as helicopter pilots.

The Saigon dispatch said official information on the extension was classified, presumably to avoid calling more attention to the U. S. military buildup. It is aimed at keeping the Southeast Asian country from falling to Communist guerrillas and infiltrators slipping across the border from North Viet Nam.

The situation will take Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on another flying trip to Hawaii this weekend for a conference with top officers and diplomats from the Red-pressed country.

He will leave Sunday, accompanied by Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Assistant Secretary of Defense Paul A. Nitze, and Averell Harriman, assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

Gen. Paul D. Harkins, newly appointed U. S. military commander in Viet Nam, arrived in Honolulu Friday to prepare for the talks.

It will be the third such Viet

Two Injured As Car Rams Rear of Truck

A Salem woman and an East Palestine man received minor injuries in one of three traffic mishaps investigated by highway patrolmen Friday and today.

Russell Bable, 37, of East Palestine, received lacerations of the forehead and abrasions of the knee, and Mildred Proffitt, 37, of 593 Prospect St., passenger in a car driven by Bable, contusions of the left eye, minor abrasions of the forehead and abrasions of both knees.

Both were treated and released at Salem City Hospital this morning.

According to patrolmen, Bable's westbound car struck the rear dual wheels of an eastbound truck-trailer operated by Thomas A. Milleron, 50, of Pittsburgh, at 3:20 a.m. today on Rt. 14, three miles east of Columbiana.

The car received considerable damage and the truck suffered minor damage, the Patrol reported. Bable was cited by patrolmen for driving left of center.

In another mishap, on Township Road 952, near the state line, at 8:40 a.m. yesterday, cars driven by Arvid Barklay, 34, and Gerald L. Parker, 46, both of East Palestine, sideswiped, causing minor damage to both vehicles.

John Quincy Adams, 46, of Nantoverton, was cited for reckless operation following a two-car collision on Rt. 9, four miles south of Salem, at 6:50 p.m. Friday.

The Patrol reported that Adams attempted to pass a stopped northeast-bound car operated by Robert L. Rea, 27, of RD 2, Salem, and his southbound auto sideswiped the side of the Rea car, causing minor damage to both.

German Coastal Dikes Smashed By North Sea

Thousands Flee Severe Floods; Winds Rip Britain

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—Howling winter winds, raging seas and floods clobbered northern Europe in one of its worst storms of the century today.

In Britain at least 11 persons perished and in Germany six were known dead with others feared drowned as the North sea smashed through coastal dikes.

Thousands fled their homes in the port cities of Hamburg and Bremerhaven in Germany and thousands more were reported fleeing from the lowlands. Many were believed caught asleep in their beds by gushing flood waters.

High winds pounded the Baltic Coast of Communist East Germany, causing considerable damage, the official news agency ADN reported.

Thousands Are Homeless A spokesman for the Hamburg city government said between 20,000 and 40,000 persons were homeless.

Two villages on the upper Elbe River near the East German border were cut off when two dikes burst. West German army helicopters flew to evacuate the villagers.

U.S. Army soldiers in Bremerhaven, a U.S. Army embarkation port, worked with Germans sandbagging dike breaches. Civilian telephone communications to Bremerhaven were cut.

In Britain, 100-mile-an-hour gales hit Sheffield, causing $5.6-million damage there alone.

On the seas, ships were reported in trouble.

A Danish schooner was reported in distress off the island of Ruegen. The East German news agency said the crew of the unidentified craft was taken aboard a West German freighter.

Freighter In Distress The 7,275-ton Greek freighter Freisearchai was reported in distress off the Danish west coast.

The Dirkzwager shipping agency in Rotterdam said the freighter radioed: "We are in a very dangerous position." The ship was reported then about 100 miles northwest of Esbjerg in Danish Jutland.

Hurricane-force winds lashed most of Northern Europe Friday.

In Britain property damage was estimated up to $8.5 million. In Germany, preliminary estimates placed damage at more than $250 million.

Dikes gave way first in the port city of Bremerhaven. Hundreds of men, including American soldiers, worked through the night to close the breaks with sandbags.

Air raid sirens were sounded in Cuxhaven on the Elbe River estuary when the high water swept over the dikes and flooded thousands of basements.

Farms in the fertile lowlands between Bremen and Cuxhaven and south of Husum were among

Farm Statistical Picture

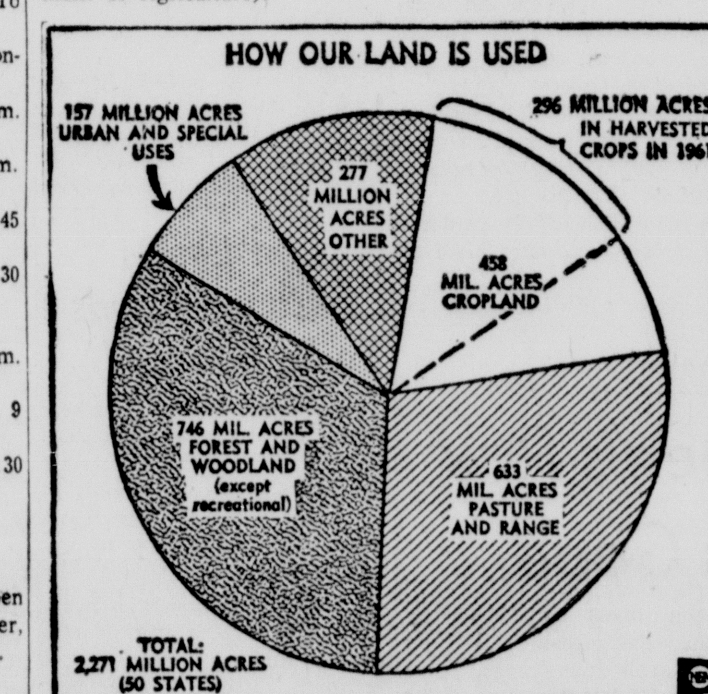

THE FAT YEARS — Unlike Egypt of the Biblical Joseph, future lean years do not promise to dent the nation's stockpile of wheat. Chart, based on U.S. Department of Agriculture data, shows that, except for two years, wheat carryover (excess of production over needs) has risen—from 256 million bushels in 1952 to 1.4 billion bushels in 1961. Storing the wheat has become a big item in the national budget.

PARADOX OF PLENTY — Despite the decline in crop acreage since 1950, increases in yields per acre on American farms have driven production sharply upward. Chart, based on U.S. Agriculture Dept. information, shows that yields in 1961 were 40 per cent above 1950 levels, due to greater use of fertilizer, better plant varieties, more and better chemicals and machinery and more skillful farming methods.

TOO MUCH TOO OFTEN — Perennial problem facing the country's economic planners is the growing carryover of certain farm products—the excess of production over yearly needs. Chart above shows the corn and feed grain carryover picture. Stockpiles have risen for nine straight years, from 20 million tons in 1952 to nearly 85 million tons in 1961. (Data is from the U.S. Department of Agriculture).

THE FERTILE LAND — Most important uses of America's more than 2 1/2 billion acres of land are shown in chart above. Of the total, 458 million acres are available for crops, but in 1961, only two-thirds of this cropland was harvested. Yet because of increased productivity and advances in technology, production was ample for all needs, both domestic and export. (Data from U.S. Department of Agriculture).

Confident Living

By Dr. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE
Upgrade Your Thoughts

"Life consists in what a man is thinking of all day. So said Ralph Waldo Emerson. I often quote Emerson for he was one of the wisest men America ever produced. But apparently Emerson himself took a dim view of quoting others. In a discussion of immortality he said, 'I notice that as soon as writers broach this question they begin to quote. I hate quotations. Tell me what YOU KNOW.'"

And how right he was! To know something for yourself is to possess real meaning in life. This is particularly true where spiritual principles and techniques are concerned. For when they are put to work by a person who knows they will work, he is on the way to creative results.

I happen to be one who writes books designed to help people with their life's problems. The many letters I receive from readers who have actually put spiritual techniques into operation are most enthusiastic. They know for themselves what these principles will do.

In my most recent book I wrote about one technique which has helped a lot of people. It is this. When things are not going too well — drop everything and do a reshaping job on your thinking. This is most important for the simple reason that we tend to become exactly like our basic or motivating thought patterns; and when you change your thoughts, you can change everything.

AT A DINNER PARTY I noticed a man who was an exceptionally vibrant and alive personality. I marveled at his dynamic outgoingness. To a fellow pastor, also present at the dinner, I said, "Quite a man. He seems alive way down deep."

"You should have seen this fellow a few years back," the pastor replied. "Never a smile out of him then. He carried the weight of the world on his shoulders. He was a sour-puss if ever there was one and people hated to see him come around and start spouting pessimism.

"He made money, plenty of it. He always was a real good businessman and he put together a big enterprise employing several hundred people. But he got no pleasure out of it and he was becoming a crabbed, mean, irritable old man years before his time — if there is such a time.

"He got to feeling physically sick — and little wonder with all those sick attitudes of his. Began to feel pain in his chest and arms, and was breathless at times. The doctor warned him to ease up, that his blood pressure was not quite normal. And other aches and pains bothered him and he virtually haunted doctors' offices.

"ONE DOCTOR shipped him off to a specialist in Chicago and there he really got it. This specialist went over him, gave him all the tests, and at the conclusion of consultations said: 'Your pains are not real but pseudo and they come not from faulty heart action but from wrong thought action. There is nothing very wrong with you physically that couldn't be O.K. if you only got your thinking straightened out. In some way the life has been knocked out of you, and you had better rebuild it or else.'"

"The doctor looked at him for a long minute and said, 'Better go home, go to church and get some honest-to-God religion!'"

"Yes, sir, believe it or not that's exactly what the specialist said. Then he added: 'That's my prescription. Fifteen hundred dollars please.'"

"Fifteen hundred bucks! For what?" our friend shouted.

"For knowing what to tell you," the doctor quietly answered. "You charge plenty for your services, don't you?"

"WELL, THE MAN CAME home and immediately came to see me," the pastor continued. And was he mad; called that specialist a hold-up man and other names. He told me he would get fifteen-hundred dollars' worth out of it if it killed him. And, what did that doctor mean by sending him to a minister to get religion! I explained the powerful effect of wrong thinking on the physical body and gave him some counseling and spiritual "treatment." It was a long process but he kept coming and followed directions.

"You see, he had paid through the nose for advice and at first what motivated him most was simply to get his money's worth. But soon he got beyond hating the specialist, whom he now thinks is a great man. The doctor sized him up correctly: knew if he charged him a big fee he would think the advice important enough to treat it seriously. At any rate he got his thinking revamped and you see what he is today."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	11	17-27
Monday	John	11	38-44
Tuesday	Acts	9	36-41
Wednesday	Romans	10	5-13
Thursday	Hebrews	11	1-7
Friday	Psalms	121	1-8
Saturday	Psalms	4	1-8

Ask—and it shall be given you. Seek—and ye shall find.
Knock—and it shall be opened unto you.

The promise of Jesus is all the proof a child asks. But, knowing that we grownups are often more inclined to skepticism than faith, Christ continues:

What man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will give him a stone — or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

And while the multitude pondered the implication of these challenges, the Lord offered his conclusion . . . so simple as to appear obvious . . . so profound as to convince all but an atheist:

If ye, then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children — how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask Him!

But His real proof you'll find in the experience of prayer . . . in your church . . . in your home . . . in the sacred quiet moments of every day.

They're Better Boys Now

Former President Eisenhower's second letter to the Senate subcommittee that looked into military "muzzling" seems to be an attempt to ease a policy the former five-star general enforced when he was in the White House.

Because censorship of speeches of top-level officials is belittling, he says, it should be dispensed with. Top-level officials should be put on their own. Then if they fail to live up to their obligation to guard their tongues, they should be dealt with by means "other than censorship." He does not say what the means would be.

Most of us had assumed that top-level officials would be cagey enough to guard their tongues without censorship, yet their speeches were subject to review under the Eisenhower administration. Even then so much loose-talking was done that the incoming Kennedy administration declared it would tighten up the setup because of embarrassing incidents that had happened when top-level officials talked out of turn.

It would seem to be true, therefore, that even under a censorship system some top-level officials will step out of line. There is no prospect that censorship of their speeches will be waived to spare their feelings about having speeches written for them by ghost-writers edited before delivery.

But in the meantime the Senate investigation undoubtedly has had a good effect on the dozen-odd men doing the pentagon's blue-penciling. It has made them acutely aware of the embarrassment always caused when a blue pencil job is reviewed later with a critical eye. The decisions had better have been sound.

A blue pencil is an instrument of temptation. With it, a mere human being can feel as if he had the wisdom of eternity and the power of 10,000 panthers. This calls for a strong sense of inner restraint.

One blue pencil will get you 50 erasers that the blue-pencil squad in the Pentagon is doing more intelligent editing right now than it ever did before — the automatic consequence of being asked to justify changes for which they may have been no justification but whim.

There Would Be a Goodly Throng

An Associated Press report of a retiring sea captain who dislikes the sea after 46 years and only went to sea in the first place because of poverty and a family tradition of seafaring has nothing to hide.

There are preachers who never liked preaching, lawyers who hate their profession, doctors of medicine who would rather have done something else, actors who despise themselves for being trapped in an art they do not respect and plenty of big, successful businessmen who resent the years they are wasting on business when they would be happier doing something else.

The retiring captain, Geoffrey M. Fletcher, master of H. M. S. Andes, admits he is afraid of the sea in rough weather. He has nothing to hide about that either. There are firemen afraid of fire, policemen who dread the possibility of being shot, teachers who live in terror of whimsical administrators and capricious parents, high-wire per-

Civic Responsibilities

"My Responsibilities As An American Citizen" was the subject of the American Legion-sponsored essay contest among Columbian County high school students last month and eight boys and girls have had their compositions selected for district judging to come later.

The eight are to be congratulated, not only for their themes but for their interest. If more effort like the Legion contest were put forth from time to time by various organizations, perhaps we could instill in more individuals a greater appreciation of our American heritage so that our future citizens will shoulder civic responsibilities when their time comes.

It's a sad commentary on our behavior today, but too many of us seem satisfied to "let George do it."

Young Republicans

Our young Republicans have served notice that they intend to stand up and be counted. They have organized the Salem Area Young Republican Club and their initial meeting this week attracted a good representation of the younger men in the community.

Such spontaneous reaction is good for the party; in fact, both major parties. With due respect to the city's venerable Republican stalwarts, these young men can contribute immeasurably in many ways, while yet respecting the sage advice of their elders.

Interests in politics on the local is one of the best defenses against a runaway by government bureaucracies which seem to be suffering more and more from the sickness of creeping socialism.

Once Over

Carry Back, famed race horse, is now a stock issue, bringing $35,000 a share. This moves skinner up higher than AT&T, IBM and DuPont. Horse is in class where he can get into a proxy fight. Possible annual sport to shareholders:

Dear Shareholder: Carry Back Investment Corp. is pleased to report good earnings, with profits off only slightly due to high costs of hay, oats, liniment and jockeys. Immediate outlook is encouraging despite recent loss in the Florida area.

The racetrack situation is good all over and this horse's potential earnings are bright, despite competitive factors and some indications of a tight situation among horse players, which could mean a slump in purses.

A merger with Sir Gaylord and Kelso was considered, but a proxy fight developed which Carry Back lost by a neck, after usual late start.

February income was off, due to a bad case of "the slows" and unsatisfactory weight allowances. Fundamentally the corporation is sound, and so is the horse. You are reminded that while the weight is often high, Carry Back carried no bonded debt.

Your directors feel that encouraged by fact Attorney General Robert Kennedy has not indicated he regards Carry Back as a monopoly under the Sherman Act. Certainly the corporation safely can say that there has been no suspicion of price fixing, considering the low betting odds last time out.

White House Visit

formers who get the shakes when they think about falling.

There are structural iron walkers who don't like to walk I-beams a thousand feet in the air, airplane pilots who never liked to fly and are scared stiff of foul weather and sandhogs who shiver every time they climb into another caisson to spend a turn in a tunnel project.

Housewives routinely declare if they never had to flop another mop or open another can of beans it would be too soon. And just about any one of us would admit, if pressed, captain, that mostly we are doing what we are doing because of a combination of poverty and pressure, sometimes including tradition, though mostly we were told at the parental knee to get into something that would be better than the old man and the old lady had got used to because it had turned out to be a bucket of boredom for them, except when things went wrong — and then they were scared half to death.

White House Visit

Never were television cameras and audio gear used to better advantage than in the nation's visit to the White House Wednesday night, with Mrs. John F. Kennedy conducting the tour.

All day Thursday the excellent impression made by the young First Lady's explanations of her project of bringing to the White House everything that can be found with a direct historic connection was being talked about by people who had enjoyed the CBS presentation.

Two things made the deepest impression. First was the realization that Mrs. Kennedy has been and is continuing to be a prime mover in a project to create a White House museum, with a large part of the collection on display in the White House itself and the rest in the Smithsonian Institute.

Second was the realization that this charming young woman is so imbued with the history of the executive mansion that she speaks about it as an expert. To all who had been nursing the impression that Jacqueline Kennedy was too preoccupied with her numerous interests to take care of the President's house the way they thought it should be taken care of, the CBS expedition was an eye-opener.

Many of us have had the privilege of visiting the White House, but none of us ever had the privilege of being guided by a resident expert like Jacqueline Kennedy. She added new dimensions of interest in its furnishings and their significance and, incidentally, new dimensions of admiration for the First Lady of the United States.

By H. I. Phillips

Your directors feel, however, that recent Hialeah losses reflects cyclical trend and that players will be back with fresh funds. We advise Carry Back for the "long pull" although we don't like the word "pull" in horse racing. This also makes us refrain from emphasizing that this issue is "tightly held." The outlook for 1962 is promising, always allowing for a possible popped osselet or ringbone trouble. In brief, this corporation will bear watching and may surprise next time out.

BOBBY KENNEDY delighted Japanese by jumping rope, but if he really wanted to grip Japan he should have shown form as a baseball home run king or pitcher.

Carl Sandburg once again on TV proved that he is one of the three or four great airwave personalities of the nation. He grips audiences and holds them spellbound, with the personality of pioneers, his presence is commanding. Mr. Sandburg looks as if he had stepped out of a covered wagon. His voice and warmth are so effective it's about time the government recognized the power he could assert on Voice of America programs.

Thomas B. Costain is out with another fine historical novel, "The Last of the Plantagenets." It seems only yesterday when he was a top Doubleday script reader, judging other people's writings and perhaps not dreaming that he would himself soar to a top position among successful authors. It couldn't happen to a nicer fellow.

Seems Like We Just Came From There

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

It is time that as much of the truth as is possible be told about "Col. Rudolph Ivanovich Abel". It is only known to a handful of men — but we exchanged the Soviet's top electronic-missile — outer space rocket spy for an aerial photograph. This is no reflection on Francis Gary Powers' gallantry or courage. He is a daring pilot. But "Abel" is a skilled engineer, a "fabulous" physicist and probably the coordinator of electronic-industrial spy rings still operating across the Western world.

Furthermore, it is absolutely not true that the Russians never claimed him as their own. They did. Some time after the FBI arrested "Abel" — code name "Mark" — two members of the Soviet Embassy's secretariat approached the Justice Department. They wanted to see "Abel." This was the first and last time the Soviets ever acted in behalf of an apprehended spy.

However, it was the opinion of the then Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins — who brilliantly and successfully prosecuted "Abel"—that the contact should not be permitted.

TOMKINS got to know his adversary well in the following years and, after the trial, described Rudolf Ivanovich as "one of the most fabulous intellectuals" he ever met. At that time Tompkins was chief of the Justice Department's Internal Security Division.

The two Russian diplomats then were told to go through channels—the State Department. They returned to the embassy. They shortwaved for instructions. They never returned. But I give it to you as fact that the Soviet Central Committee itself wanted "Abel" back and began offering Powers in exchange. I reported this as early as July 31, 1961. There is further evidence that the spies operating out of the Soviet's U.N. Embassy and the one in Washington coordinated their activities through "Abel."

There is the case of U.S. Sergeant R. I. I do not give you his full name for he has suffered since he worked in our embassy in Moscow. The Soviets framed him with a woman. When he was shifted back to Washington the sergeant, unbeknown to our counter-intelligence, was being blackmailed into working for the Russians. He was given special instructions on how secretly to contact the embassy of the U.S.S.R.

HIS ORDERS were to clip three stories from a certain New York City newspaper. Each story had to be critical of the embassy, or the Russians or the Communist economy, etc. The sergeant was to brand each one with a big red crayoned question mark. On the same day of the week, for three successive weeks, he was to mail one of the newspaper clips to the Soviet Embassy in Washington. On the same day of the fourth week, he was to be standing in front of a theater. Further, he was to be smoking or obviously carrying a pipe which they had given him. This can be proven in duly attested documents.

Then, one of "Mark's" men would make the contact and pick up whatever information the sergeant had. "Mark" or "Abel's" interest in the sergeant was a relative who had worked at an atomic energy plant.

The sergeant never did send in those clips. So Abel went after him. Furthermore, there were other more vital national and international spy rings devoted to the wizardry of modern electronics.

There are thousands of U.S. plants to discover and cover. Each has some gadget the Soviets want. "Abel"—whose right name not even the CIA knows—nor does it know his rank—busied himself with other dupes and drops. He even outranked U.N. and Washington Soviet Embassy officials.

WITHOUT "ABEL" the Soviets had difficulty keeping their electronic — industrial — military spy rings coordinated. One of these rings, for example, is about to be smashed in England. "Abel" was the inner wheel which kept the rings moving. For this and one other reason, they wanted him returned.

The other motive is not an effort to win friends and influence highly placed people in the United States. "Abel's" return marks no breakthrough in anything except espionage for the Russians.

They wanted "Abel" because he is an expert on West Germany and Eastern Europe. That is the basic front now. "Rudolf Ivanovich Abel," scientist, historian, engineer, architect, draftsman, artist, connoisseur of art, opera and food, soon will be there.

Mail Infiltration

By Dr. GEORGE S. BENSON

Communist Propaganda Is Postage-Free

Nebraska Congressman Glenn Cunningham is planning to push with vigor House Resolution No. 9004, which he introduced in the last Congress near the close of the session.

This is a bill that would stop the present Administration policy of permitting Communist propaganda mailings to be delivered in this country without additional postage from ports of entry. To allow this material to come into our country at all is beyond understanding, but to distribute it free seems a bit like asking the postman to join the Red conspiracy.

Congressman Cunningham cannot understand how the Administration can ask the American people for increased postal rates and at the same time allow this flood of propaganda to go through the mails free.

Since every piece of mail handled costs money it can be said with some justification that the Communists are responsible for a portion of the deficit the Post each year. Rather tragic irony, don't you think, that Chairman Khrushchev should contribute in such various ways to the deficits of the U.S. budget?

THIS ALL STEMS FROM the cancellation, last March 17, of the inspection program carried on since 1948, through which at least 90 per cent of this material was intercepted at ports of entry and dumped into the trash where it belongs. Again, Congressman Cunningham is unable to understand why this program was cancelled.

Officially, the reason given was that "it interfered with efforts to improve East-West relations." Surely no one could believe that our relations with the Russians are improved when we encourage their propaganda activities.

If our intentions were to join them by facilitating infiltration, then the present policy would be consistent. But if we want to recognize the Communist conspiracy for what it is—a plan to subjugate the world and enslave it, then we should not assist them in reaching their goals.

That is essentially why Congressman Cunningham wants to bar such material from the mails. The tons of cleverly prepared printed matter flooding our ports undoubtedly find some persons who are not prepared to understand and therefore to reject the falsehoods in it.

MUCH OF IT is pointed toward

And It's Tax-Free

By TRUMAN TWILL

A good time to stop reading this if you were born with a silver spoon clenched in your gums is now.

It's about a remark by William Black, chairman of Chock Full o' Nuts Corp., a name that makes no sense to me. But Chairman Black made sense in a speech at the ground-breaking ceremony of a medical research building at Columbia University. His money — $5 million — had been put where his mouth was, which accounted for the close attention he was reported to have been getting.

Rich people, he said, should get rid of the bulk of their wealth while they're still around. This way they can be sure the money isn't piddled away after they're dead by people who might not know a worthwhile cause from a stumblebum.

The other thing they can do by shucking of their shekels before they're boxed for the last trip to the bank is to give their kids a break, and on this point Mr. Black grew sharp, mentioning that for every kid who isn't ruined by inherited wealth the sad book is full of pages of tragedies.

He also had something to say about the evil of leaving too much money to ever-loving wives, who thereupon turn into lodestones for "hand-kissing" experts.

The New York Times says the people who heard the speaker tell how he felt about these things were impressed. Some said they found his ideas "refreshing," though some of them presumably were ready to bite nails because they were connected with enterprises that had been helped by what Mr. Black said he thought were foolish philanthropies. And some of them — presumably — had been cursed with inheriting more money than had been good for them.

This is something I've been hearing about all my life, and I should think by this time something would have been done about it, like making sure that all kiddies in dire danger were taken away from their rich parents in time to save them, the same way society steps in to take away the kiddies of poor parents in time to save them.

It strikes me as an odd thing indeed that we never hear about action of this kind if conditions are as bad as they're reported to be by people in a position to know what's going on. Volumes of young people, and a large portion of it is being sent to schools and colleges.

More than 300,000 packages of material (many containing several copies for distribution) were counted in a single year on their way to educational institutions through the port of New Orleans. A large quantity of it also is angled toward groups only recently coming to America and to various minority groups, in an effort to undermine their confidence in this country.

Even under the old inspection and notification program that partly controlled the distribution of this material, the inflow was terrific.

The U.S. Customs Bureau counted more than 14 million packages during 1960, an increase of 137 per cent from 1959. Although the effect of the March 17 order has been kept secret, Congressman Cunningham believes that it has brought at least a tenfold increase in the distribution of these materials.

This means that literally millions of pieces of attractive propaganda are being distributed by our own government and paid for with our tax money. One is tempted to ask whether the danger is from within or without. It appears we have knowingly allowed our adversary to outfox us.

If it were not for the fact that we are dealing with conspirators, as well as experienced treaty-breakers, these reciprocal international mail-handling agreements might have advantages. But the Communists are again making fools out of us with our assistance.

IF THE ADMINISTRATION so misreads the intent of the Communists without as to insist on being a party to their propaganda within, then it is time a great hue and cry went up, all the way to Capital Hill.

As Congressman Walter Judd has said of Mr. Khrushchev: "He has been winning all around the world with lying words."

And we not only let him send them in; we help pay the transportation of material which is most effective in weakening and dividing and confusing and undermining with the purpose of eventual subjugating our own people."

worry and buckets of tears are wasted on the plight of the suffering siblings of the mixed-up poor, but who would start a crusade to save the imperiled offspring of the well-organized rich? The only thing I can think of to do is let all the rich kids jeopardize their future until they're through with education, then cut them off with no more than they'd expect to get if their old man was expecting to live on Social Security when he was turned out to pasture.

This would clear up the condition described by Mr. Black. As far as widows are concerned, there's no hope because it would be unconstitutional to keep the girls from having themselves kissed. And there's no hope for keeping wealth from being frittered away after the death of the genius who cached it. Not everybody can order his exit so precisely as to be down to his last million when the time comes. There always will be some golden strings dangling, and there always will be opportunists grabbing for them I'd grab, myself, if I had a chance — and who wouldn't? The Twill Fund for the Advancement of Twill. How about that?

Matter of Fact

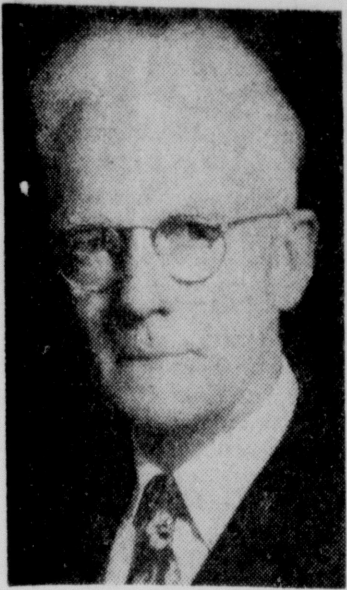

Traditionally, the man who wears his hat indoors is showing his independence. British House of Commons member started wearing hatisms hsn so to owe their independence of the king. Early U.S. congressmen followed suit. Representatives wore hats in session until the end of Jackson's term. Finally in 1837 a symbol of "independence"

Guiana

Grey, broadcast repeated appeals for order and declared the violence had deferred all plans for British Guiana for years. Presumably he meant independence.

The strikers have protested that if Jagan gets his demand for swift independence he will turn British Guiana into another Cuba.

The uprising was touched off by Jagan's austerity program and its unpopular compulsory savings plan and freeze on vacations. But the strikers have vowed to continue their walkout until Jagan quits altogether.

Opposition to Jagan reached a climax this week with a general strike that paralyzed Georgetown. Friday it broke out into pitched battles in the streets. Demonstrators roamed the streets setting fire to stores and vehicles, looting and clashing again and again with police.

Riot squads opened fire on the rampaging mobs after failing to stop them with tear gas grenades. The rioters returned the fire.

At least three persons were reported killed and scores wounded in the early fighting.

An estimated 30 of the city's largest buildings were set ablaze. Harassed by the rioters and hindered by inadequate water supplies, firemen were unable to cope with huge fires that raged on into the night.

Opposition leaders Forbes Burnham and Peter d'Aguiar, defeated by Jagan in last September's elections, defied a government ban on demonstrations and led 20,000 strikers in a march on the parliament buildings. The mob broke through police cordons.

Jagan, who was ousted by the British in 1953 for being pro-Communist, appealed to the British for help.

mobs attacked and damaged U.S. buildings and diplomats' homes. The attack apparently was in protest against troop-carrying Dutch commercial airliners refueling on U.S. territory en route to Dutch New Guinea. There were no signs the attacks were aimed at Kennedy.

In his toughest statement so far on the Indonesian government's demand for West New Guinea, the 36-year-old brother of the President said the United States was proud of its relationships with the Netherlands.

"You are crazy to think America might oppose the Dutch," he said. Insisting the United States, however, retains a neutral attitude, Kennedy said, "We will continue to devote our efforts to get Indonesia and the Netherlands around the conference table."

Kennedy told the students that if the United States were to take sides in the dispute chances for a settlement were lessened.

TEXAS STYLE — A 15 by 35-inch check is almost too much for Mrs. Edward T. Couze, clerk in a Pontiac, Mich., bank. It was presented for payment by Jim Telisky who got it from his employer, the Texas Refinery Corp., which believes in paying off in a big way. Jim got regular size dollars.

NOT FOR NOVICES — Definitely not recommended for the average bike rider is this spectacular exhibition of perfect balance on a single bicycle by 12 members of a Communist Chinese acrobatic troupe. They're amateurs, performing in a Shanghai theater.

Per Capita Liquor Consumption Shown

Liquor sales in Columbiana County were below the state average although they amounted to $1,748,540 in 1961, State Auditor James Rhodes reported today.

The county's per capita expenditure was $18.37 whereas the state average was $24.49. Neighboring Mahoning County's per capita figure was $30.93—which was above average.

The smallest per capita expenditure for liquor was in Holmes County, with $5.09.

Columbiana County's store sales of liquor last year netted $1,224,714, Rhodes reported. Wholesale stores accounted for $534,826, with estimated total retail sales being $1,981,608.

same experience in other cities of this size. Those with less than two years of service are making $243 above the median.

While Salem police and firemen rate above the median in salary, they are also above the median in the number of hours worked per week.

SALEM FIREMEN work a 72-hour week while local police have a 48-hour week.

Although 17 of the 50 Ohio Cities reporting have 72-hour weeks for their firemen, the median is 63 hours.

As for policemen in the 60 cities reporting, the median was just under a 44-hour week. Nineteen cities, including Salem, have a 48-hour week for policemen; 28 have a 40-hour week; 12 have a 44-hour week and one (Delaware) has a 56-hour week.

Both the police chief and fire chief in Salem make well above the median salary of the cities listed in the report.

Each of the local chiefs receives $6,720 annually while the median for cities reporting is $6,144.

The top-paying chiefs jobs in Ohio are in Cleveland where they receive $14,520 annually.

FOR CITIES IN THE 10,000 to 20,000 population bracket, Mt. Vernon pays its regular police and firemen the most—$6,040.

The best paid policemen in the state are at Norwood (population 34,580) where the annual salary ranges from $5,225 to $6,480 for a 44-hour week.

Maple Heights (population 31,667) is tops in paying regular firemen. That city pays $6,200 a year for a 60-hour week.

In Youngstown regular police and firemen get $5,394 a year and the chiefs get $10,000. Firemen in that city work 56 hours per week while police have a 40-hour week.

tion, creating 23 of them on Dec. 15, 1958, to bolster the college for its increasing work in administering the church.

That Consistory brought the college's membership to 74, breaking for the first time the limit of 70 set by Pope Sixtus V in 1586. At that time the total population of the world was about 360-million people. Today, membership of the Roman Catholic Church alone nears the half-billion mark.

Pope John also has created three cardinals "in pectore"—in his breast—holding their names secret. These, when their names are announced, will be considered to have been cardinals from March 28, 1960, the date that the Pope announced that he had their names.

They are generally believed to be prelates of the church in Communist-dominated areas of the world who would be imperiled if their cardinal status were made known.

During his reign 17 cardinals have died.

Following the recent deaths of three cardinals that cut the college to 77 men, many of whom are in advanced years, Pope John again moved quickly to bolster its ranks. The average age of the present cardinals is 71 years.

It was generally believed that Pope John wished to strengthen the college in view of the forthcoming Ecumenical Council of the Roman Catholic Church.

The Consistory call was expected following the death Thursday of Aloisius Cardinal Muench, the only American Cardinal on the Vatican Curia and the third cardinal to die in 10 days.

Nam conference for McNamara in two months.

U. S. officials said their optimism was based on the assessment that President Ngo Dinh Diem is making sufficient reforms, pressed on him by the United States, to gain the support of the people.

Also, they feel the South Vietnamese troops are quickly learning the antiguerrilla techniques so they can battle the Viet Cong Communist rebels themselves without direct action by Americans.

Press dispatches from Saigon have reported that U. S. forces supporting and advising Viet Nam's military establishment are increasingly trading pot shots with the Communist Viet Cong.

President Kennedy has said the Americans—described as assigned to technical and training jobs only—are under orders to shoot back if fired upon.

But the officials said they don't expect U. S. troops to get involved very often in this kind of clash.

Thus, the officials said, the only

Rare Drug Used In Effort To Help Leukemia Victim

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Tons of plants are being used in an effort to help Mary Mote, 5, a leukemia victim.

There is no known cure for her acute form of leukemia but a co-operative scientific effort that trails from Jamaica to Indianapolis to Dallas, is working in her behalf.

A drug used on Mary is made from the periwinkle, one of the first plants used by Jamaican natives in their folk cures.

Scientists are testing various drugs made from the plant and some have shown promise against leukemia and other forms of cancer. Mary is getting the latest drug, called "leurocristine." It is not generally available.

A physician at Children's Medical Center said it takes two tons of periwinkle for the manufacturer (Eli Lilly and Co.) in Indianapolis to make a gram of leurocristine. One gram costs $1,800. Mary will use that much in six weeks. The manufacturer supplies it without charge to the medical center for testing purposes.

The Southwest Cancer Chemotherapy Group, which includes many scientists testing potential cancer drugs, is cooperating with the manufacturer in the clinical trials.

So, curly haired Mary troops to the center every week for an intravenous injection.

She usually is smiling, and clutches a black-and-white stuffed dog in both hands as she waits. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Mote. He is a Dallas detective.

Dr. Joe Anne Whitaker, director of the hematology clinic at the center, said that while the drug has showed some promises, it is not considered a cure.

The manufacturer declined to comment until a meeting in April, when results from the various centers testing leurocristine will be studied.

Milton H. Cohen, director of the SEC study, wrote the specialists that receipt of the questionnaire "is not to be construed as a reflection upon you or your firm or anyone connected with it." He also said questions should not be taken as an indication that "particular stocks are under investigation."

Specialists will have to detail their handling of the selected stocks on two days, Feb. 16 and Feb. 19.

The commission questionnaire also asks for detailed data on the professional income of specialist in 1959 and 1960. It wants to find out whether most of their income is from trading in the stocks they handle, or from commissions.

Columbiana Stops Poland From Clinching Title 50-49

Sinks Two With 10 Seconds Left

United Edges West Branch 46-45 On Schaffer's Fouls

United High's standout forward Jerry Schaffer dumped in two foul shots with 10 seconds remaining to give the Golden Eagles a 46-45 pressure-packed victory over West Branch on the loser's hardwood Friday night.

In what proved to be one of the most dramatic finishes in any game in the area this season, Coach Larry Joseph's United cagers capitalized on two Warrior mistakes in the final half minute to turn possible defeat into victory.

United led 44-43 with 24 seconds to go, but West Branch forward Chuck Wilson was fouled and made both shots on a one-and-one situation to move the Warriors in front 45-44.

The Golden Eagles then, in their aggressiveness to get in position for a shot, lost the ball on a bad pass. West Branch, instead of freezing the ball, attempted a shot and United took the rebound. The Eagles moved the ball down the floor and Schaffer was fouled in the act of shooting, setting up the dramatic finish.

The contest was a see-saw battle the entire route, with United on top 12-7 in the first frame, West Branch ahead 24-23 at intermission and the Eagles regaining the margin 34-32 in the third stanza.

John Hanna, United's senior guard, took scoring honors in the game with eight fielders and five fouls for 21 points. Schaffer was also in double figures with 15 counters.

Senior forward Dan Dennis was high in the West Branch balanced scoring attack with 11 tallies.

United was 18 of 53 shots from the field for 33.9 per cent, while West Branch hit on 16 of 67 attempts for a 23.9 percentage.

From the foul stripe, the Warriors meshed 13 of 19 tries for 68.4 per cent, with United hitting on 10 of 18 for a 55.6 percentage.

The Warriors won the battle of team rebounds 36-30, with Dennis hauling down 11 for the losers and Schaffer 13 for the winners.

Last night's game was the regular season finale for United, which wound up with a 5-5 Turnpike Conference mark and a 10-8 record over-all. The Golden Eagles will play Salineville in the opening round of the Columbiana County Class A tourney Wednesday night in the Beaver Local gym.

West Branch now holds a 6-4 final conference record and is 12-5 for the season thus far, with its last regular season game to-night against Beaver Local at Damascus. The Warriors will open the Class AA tourney wars with Canton Lehman Wednesday night in Canton Memorial Auditorium.

In last night's preliminary game, West Branch's Reserves blasted the United Jayvees 53-31.

OHSAA Urges Mouth Guards

Acts To Cut Rate Of Dental Injuries

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's High School Athletic Association moved today to cut down the number of dental injuries suffered by scholastic football players.

The state board, wrestling with the problem more than a year, said:

"For 1962 we strongly recommend the use of mouth and tooth protectors. For 1963, such protectors will be mandatory."

W. C. McConnell, state commissioner, said the board's recommendation read:

"We urge the use of an intra-oral mouth and tooth protector, to provide occlusal (protecting and separating the biting surfaces), and labial (protecting the lip portion) protection, and that it be:

"1. Constructed from a model made from an impression of the individual's teeth, or

"1. Constructed from a model made from an impression of the individual's teeth, or

"2. Constructed and fitted to the individual by impressing the teeth into the mouth and tooth protector."

McConnell said the board acted because of many complaints by parents, and on the recommendation of dentists and physicians.

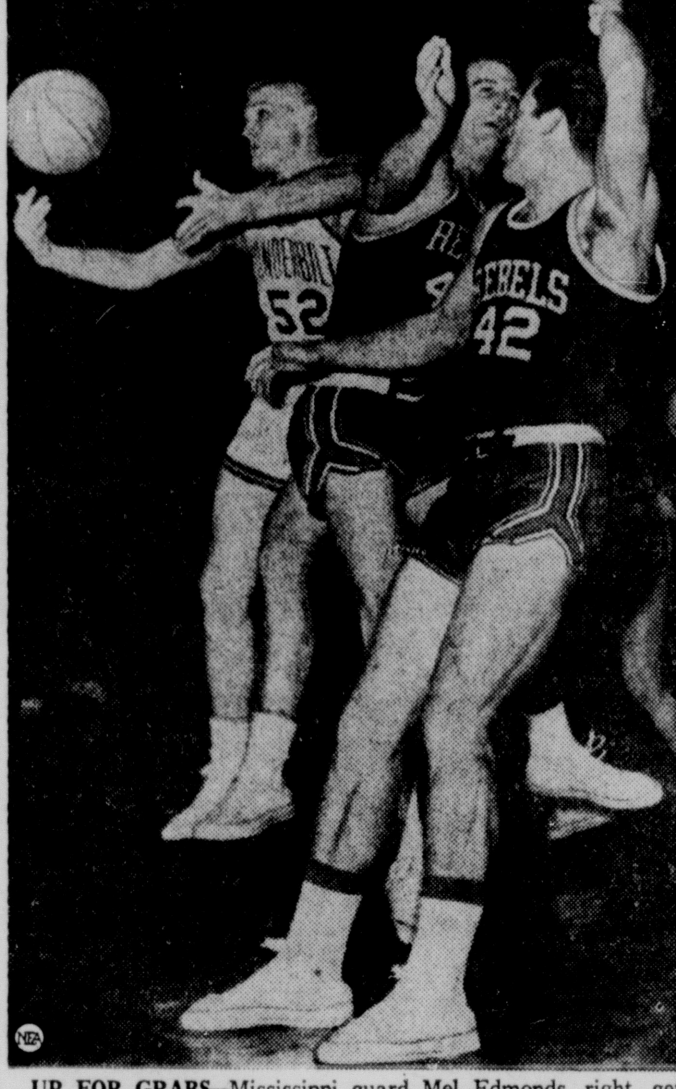

The board also voted to approve a request by the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association that players be permitted to go into football games between plays, so long as action is not delayed.

Under the old rule players were now allowed to go in as substitutes after the referee had placed the ball and walked away from it.

Basketball games interrupted or stopped entirely by leaky roofs, power failures or "sweat" from ice rinks under the floor also came in for attention.

The board ruled that if such interruption occurs in the first quarter the entire game must be replayed. If it occurs in any subsequent quarter, play resumes at the start of that quarter, with all points and fouls made in the period being erased. McConnell said the rule would apply even if only a few seconds remain in the final quarter and one club has an apparently unsurmountable lead.

Relative to reserve basketball games for next season, the board decreed that quarters must be limited to seven minutes, but urged that six minutes be the maximum. The directors also limited the warmup period between reserve and varsity games to 15 minutes.

UP FOR GRABS—Mississippi guard Mel Edmonds, right, gets tangled with teammate El Edmonds, center, in an attempt to recover the basketball in Nashville. Vanderbilt's Jerry Hall, 52, makes jumping grab and heads down court.

Clippers Could Still Tie For Tri-County Crown

Coach Rich Berryman's Columbiana Clippers knocked Poland from the ranks of the unbeaten and prevented the Bulldogs from clinching the Tri-County League cage title with a 50-49 triumph Friday night on the Clips' hardwood.

Poland, who along with Struthers had been the only two undefeated squads in the area, will now have to defeat Leetonia to-night in their own den to take undisputed claim to the title. Columbiana, with a win tonight in its season finale at Louisville, could tie for the crown if Poland should lose.

The Bulldogs are now 12-1 in the league and 16-1 over-all, while the Clippers have a 11-2 loop mark and are 14-3 in all games.

Coach Berryman's charges dominated over the Class AA boys in the first half as they moved quickly to a 17-13 first period margin and then held the lead 29-28 at intermission. Poland began to hit in the third frame and out-scored the Clips 14-9 to carry a 42-38 bulge into the final stanza.

Columbiana then put on a strong defensive show to hold the highly-rated Bulldogs to only seven points in the last period while meshing twelve to claim the victory.

In an earlier meeting between the two teams at Poland, the Bulldogs came out with a 59-52 win.

Three Clippers wound up in double figures in the winning cause, with senior Paul Schulz top scorer in the game with 16 tallies, followed by teammates Dale Murphy with 15 and Ken Gallagher with 10.

Coach Howard Kitzmiller's squad was featured by guard Bill Zimmer's 15 markers, while teammate Dave Barnhizer added 11 counters.

Both teams had a very cold night from the field, as Columbiana hit on 17 of 45 shots for a 38 per cent average and Poland dumped in 23 of 76 tries for a 31 per cent accuracy. The Clips made up for it in foul shooting as they meshed 16 of 23 attempts, while the Bulldogs registered three of five tosses.

The Columbiana Reserves were also victorious in the preliminary game, with a 35-28 decision over the Poland Jayvees.

Both varsity teams will head into tournament action after tonight's finales. Columbiana will await pairings to be held Feb. 25 for the Canton Class A sectional tourney, while Poland has already been teamed with Champion Feb. 23 in the first round of the Struthers Class AA playoffs.

Beatty Says He'll Win Race

Will 'Show Heels' To Delany In Mile

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Beatty predicted today that he'll show his heels to Ron Delany in the "mile of the year" next Saturday in the National AAU Indoor Championships.

"I don't think Ron is in good enough shape," said the world's first indoor sub-four-minute miler. "I have my race against him planned. I also know just how Ron will run against me. He'll stay off the pace, but he'll dog me all the way."

Beatty, who won the Baxter Mile in the New York Athletic Club meet in 4:00.9 Friday night in Madison Square Garden, was clocked in 3:58.9 just a week ago in the Los Angeles Times meet.

So within the space of six days, he chopped Delany's indoor mile record of 4:01.4 to pieces twice. Delany watched him from the sidelines and observed:

"I think I can beat him. If he goes all out, I'll stay right with him."

The Beatty-Delany battle won't be the only feature. Gary Gubner, 19, a muscle man from New York University, is aiming for a 65-footer in the AAU meet.

Gubner smashed his two-week-old record of 63-10 1/4, no less than three times in the New York AC meet with tosses of 64-10 1/4, 64-4 and finally a mighty heave of 64-11 3/4.

As for Beatty, now 27, he said he knew he could win the race but that he was surprised at the fine performance turned in by Tom O'Hara, 19, a Loyola of Chicago sophomore, who was second in 4:02.3.

Beatty took the lead after two laps, and while they pounded round the Madison Square Garden boards, O'Hara hung right on, never more than a couple of steps back. Finally, in the last lap Beatty opened up and left O'Hara far back.

Other winners included John Thomas of Boston University in the high jump (6-8); Bruce Kidd of the University of Toronto in the two-mile (8:54.2); Ed Moran of the New York AC in the 880 (1:52.4); Hayes Jones of Pontiac, Mich., in the 60-yard hurdles (7.8); Frank Budd of Villanova in the 60-yard dash (6.1); Bill Crothers of the University of Toronto in the 500 (56.8); Rolando Cruz of Villanova in the pole vault (15-4).

Salineville Quintet Blasted Bobcats Roll 60-36 In Title Game Tuneup

Greenford High's varsity basketball team, tuning up for its important Inter-County League clash with Lowellville for the loop title tonight, triumphed easily over a weak Salineville quintet 60-36 on the winner's court Friday night.

If the Bobcats win tonight against the Rockets they can take undisputed possession of the cage title, however, if they should lose it would throw the championship into a three-way tie with the season completed. Greenford holds a 4-1 mark, while Lowellville is now 3-2 and Crestview, which has already finished regular season play, is 4-2.

Coach Jerry Sues's Bobcats have already advanced into the second round of the Mahoning County Class A tournament after beating North Lima 51-50 Wednesday night. They will be meeting Jackson-Milton in the second round this coming Wednesday night.

In last night's contest, the Bobcats moved in front 11-6 in the first period and then coasted the rest of the way with a halftime bulge of 29-15 and 46-21 after three quarters of play.

Coach Sues utilized 11 players in the tilt, with three scoring in double figures. Rich Arnold, a 6-4 forward, led the attack with 21 points, while teammates Dave Tyo dumped in 11 markers and Ken Paulin added 10.

Senior Jack Baker, Columbiana County's top scorer, featured for

Late Rally Nets Leetonia 51-43 Win

The Leetonia Bears pushed their Tri-County League cage mark to 7-6 and their over-all record to 8-9 with a last period rally that netted them a 51-43 win over Louisville on the winner's court Friday night.

The Bears were down all the way in the game until the final frame when they dumped in 16 points to only seven for the Leopards to take the decision. Louisville was ahead 13-12 in the first period, 24-22 at intermission and 36-35 heading into the deciding last quarter.

Russ Lehman, a 6-3 senior, featured for the Bears with 14 points, while junior Larry Sommers led the losers' attack with 22 counters, followed by teammate Larry Miller with 10.

The Louisville Reserves were victorious over the Leetonia Jayvees 45-24 in the preliminary game.

The loss for the Louisville varsity sent its loop mark to 3-10 and its over-all record to 3-14.

Both schools will end their regular season play tonight. Leetonia is attempting to keep the Tri-County cage crown away from Poland when the two teams meet in the Bulldogs' gym. Poland must win to take undisputed claim to the title. Louisville will be entertaining Columbiana.

Buddy Sullivan Leads Field In Tucson Open

By MURRAY SINCLAIR
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Californian Buddy Sullivan, making his biggest bid for a PGA tournament victory in his 12 years as a pro, led a bunched field into the third round of the $20,000 Tucson Open by a stroke today.

And if the 6,484-yard, par-70 El Rio layout had more par-5 holes, he figures he'd be a cinch.

Sullivan's 61-69-130 is 10 under par. Four of the strokes were picked up on the only two long holes. Two of his three bogeys came on easy par threes.

Pressing Sullivan is Masters winner Art Wall Jr., grouped at 131 with Australian Bruce Crampton, Tucson amateur Dr. Ed Updegraff, Bob Duden and Dave Ragan.

Wall dropped nine birdies for rounds of 66-65.

The two biggest money men of 1962 in the field are in strong contention. The No. 3 man, Phil Rogers, who won the recent Los Angeles Open, and Tom Nieporte are only two strokes behind with 132s. No. 1 money-maker Gene Littler and Miller Barber have 6-under-par 134s.

Scores are so low that it took an even par 140 to qualify for the final two rounds, and 69 pros made it.

Bob Rosburg has moved into contention with 136. Defending PGA champ Jerry Barber faded to 139 with a three over par 73.

Stengel Predicts Mets Won't Be Pushovers

By CASEY STENGEL
NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—It will be very hard for me to give a discussion about the New York Mets ballplayers that have been lined up for 1962. I would not want to question the ability of the said players until I have seen them in spring training.

But I can tell you this. We made some pretty good picks in the expansion draft. That was a good start and now we have 35 players on the roster.

Our team can use players on the infield, outfield and pitching staff.

We have some experienced pitchers and quite a few young ones. Bob Miller, Aubrey Gatewood and Norm Anderson are all under 25 years of age. Billy Loes, Roger Craig and Jay Hook are experienced. Al Jackson, who we got from Pittsburgh, can throw hard.

I think this club will be a tough one in the Polo Grounds. We've got some long ball hitters and the fences are pretty short. Frank Thomas and Charley Neal should be real home threats and the same goes for Gil Hodges.

We have an experienced outfield with Thomas in left, Gus Bell in right and Richie Ashburn in center. I expect good work from our other outfielders, Joe Christopher, Jimmy Hickman and John Demerit.

Anything can happen in spring training, but right now I'm figuring Hodges on first, Felix Mantilla on short, Neal for second and Don Zimmer for third.

Hobie Landrith gives us an experienced catcher and Joe Ginsberg is another one who has been around a long time.

I feel the Dodgers, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and St. Louis have the best teams in the National League. All I want to say about the Mets right now is I don't think they'll be any pushovers.

Paul Says Indians Okay Contracts

CLEVELAND (AP)—General Manager Gabe Paul, who claims he's never had a holdout, reports all his Cleveland Indians are agreed on contracts a full week before spring training opens at Tucson, Ariz.

The last four players settled by telephone Friday. They are pitchers Jim Perry and Don Rudolph, infielder Mike de la Hoz and outfielder Chuck Essegian.

Perry is believed to have taken a slight cut after his 10-17 record last summer.

Colorado State Rips Brigham Young

Seattle Nips Oregon State; Southern Cal Upsets UCLA

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Mississippi State Bulldogs, ranked eighth in the country but a likely choice to improve, will be shooting for sole possession of the Southeastern Conference lead in one of the key college basketball games tonight.

Babe McCarthy's Bulldogs, who knocked off second-ranked Kentucky earlier this week, share the No. 1 spot with the Wildcats (each 8-1) and could move ahead with a victory over Florida tonight. Kentucky is idle.

And a victory could pave the way for a higher, perhaps much higher, national standing, particularly since four of the top 10 already have suffered losses this week.

The latest was Seattle's 74-73 shock of sixth-ranked Oregon State Friday night, ending a 16 game winning string for the Beavers, now 17-2. Others were Kentucky, and Duke (No. 7) and Duquesne (No. 9) early in the week.

In another major upset Friday night, Southern Cal regained early season form and tripped up UCLA 74-60, the first loss in six Big Five starts for UCLA.

Even if Mississippi State should take the lead in the SEC, and they're heavily favored to do so, the title would be very much up for grabs—just as it is in most other major conferences.

Among the other still wide open affairs as the season heads into its waning weeks are the Atlantic Coast, Southwest and Skyline, each with three teams still contending, and the Big Eight, Missouri Valley and—at least technically—the Big Ten.

In the latter, however, mighty Ohio State has a stranglehold with a 9-0 record and the country's No. 1 rating at 19-0 for the season. Only Wisconsin (7-1) has any kind of a chance—and that mathematical. Both are in action tonight, the brilliant Buckeyes against Michigan State and Wisconsin against Michigan.

Probably the tightest race is in the Southwest, where Texas Tech, Texas A&M and Southern Methodist are all tied for the top with 6-3 records. It may be less complex after tonight's action. Tech plays Arkansas, the Aggies try TCU, and the Mustangs test Rice, all in league games.

The same could happen in the ACC. North Carolina State stayed alive with a 76-75 squeak past South Carolina Friday night and takes its 9-3 record against Clemson tonight. Wake Forest (9-2) goes against Maryland, and Duke (9-3) plays non-conference Navy.

A key game in the Skyline tonight matches Colorado State (9-1) and Utah State (8-1). Each warmed up for it Friday night, Colorado State taking Brigham Young 73-65 and the Utahs rolled over Wyoming 78-65. Utah (8-1), idle Friday night, tries to keep pace against Denver.

Cincinnati, the third ranked team in the country, racked up its 21st victory of the season with a 59-47 triumph over Houston but still trails Bradley, No. 5 in the Missouri Valley.

Another nationally-ranked team, Kansas State (No. 4), also is trying to catch up in its league, the Big Eight. Kansas State (7-1) tries Oklahoma, while leading Colorado (8-0) is at Kansas.

Yale took a giant stride toward securing the Ivy League title Friday night, blasting Cornell 77-56. They entered the match tied for the top with 7-1 records, and play each other again next week.

Kent State Nipped by Akron

Cincy Blasts Houston; B-W Rolls Over Capital

By The Associated Press

The Cincinnati Bearcats had the number 10 going for them Friday night. The nation's third-ranked team won its 10th in a row, 59-47 over Houston, making it 10 straight over that team and the end of the 10-game series with the Cougars.

The victory boosted Cincinnati to a 21-2 season mark and set the stage for the Bearcats' crucial battle with Bradley in the Queen City Monday night. The Missouri Valley race and were the last team to defeat Cincinnati.

Cincinnati must win to move into a tie for the league lead and keep its chance to defend its NCAA crown.

Paul Hogue topped the scoring Friday night with 20.

The defeat was only the fifth in 23 games for Houston—three of the losses to Ohio teams. Cincinnati beat them twice, Bowling Green once.

Elsewhere around Ohio, Baldwin-Wallace rolled over Capital 62-45; Akron nipped Kent State's fireless Flames 68-62; Wayne State, behind Fred Prime's 33 points, defeated Western Reserve 81-75, and Wilberforce stopped Bliss 73-72.

Baldwin-Wallace moved into a tie for second place in the Ohio Conference. The Yellow Jackets, real test comes tonight—league-leading Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware.

THERON'S
Down at the Old Country Store
On The Columbiana - Lisbon Road.

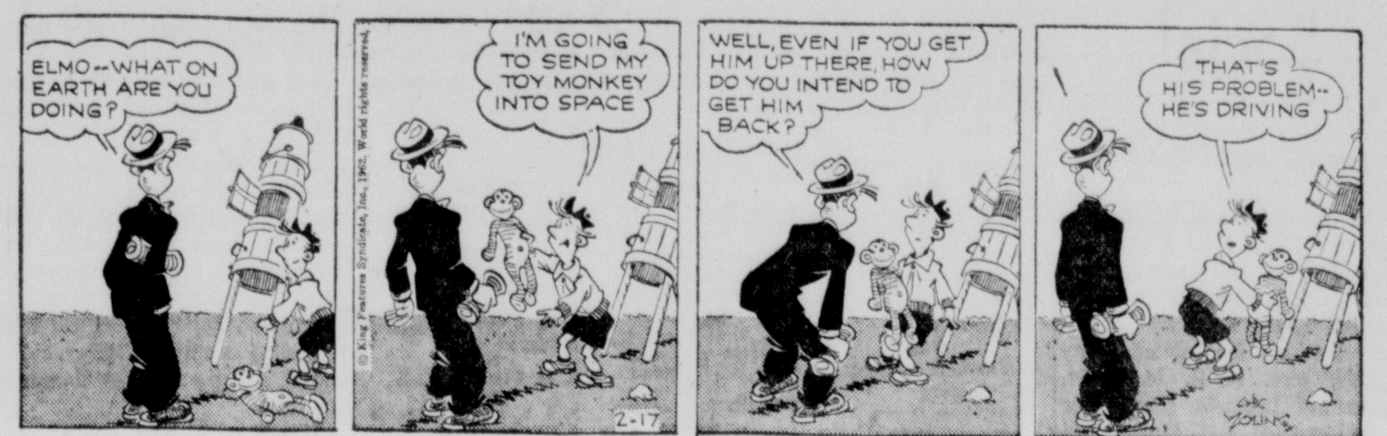

Someone told me the other day if I step on the wrong fellows toes I might end up with a knife in my back. You know when I went into the service I didn't expect to get back. They said we were fighting for our rights. If they were worth fighting for then they sure are now. I wouldn't know of a more worthwhile way to leave this world.

TV's 'Mr. Wilson'

Dies of Hemorrhage

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Joseph S. Kearns, 55, the harassed Mr. Wilson on the "Dennis the Menace" television series, died today.

His doctor said Kearns had a cerebral hemorrhage. He had entered the Park View Hospital Sunday after suddenly going into a coma.

Only Sunday Mr. Wilson had jokingly willed his gold watch to Dennis because he thought Dennis was in ill health. The program had been filmed prior to Kearns' illness.

Kearns was a veteran character actor and was a frequent participant on the Jack Benny shows and had been heard as the signature voice on "Suspense." He also had appeared on radio's Lux Theatre.

In recent years, he had appeared frequently on the Danny Thomas show and the "How to Marry a Millionaire" TV series.

Dennis' mother, Mrs. Betty North, said her son, Jay, would be heartbroken by Kearns' death. "Jay called him Uncle Joe," she said. "We will try to keep it from Jay immediately because they are shooting now."
